I. INTRODUCTION

When mating takes place between two individuals, a man and woman and is publicly recognized, it is termed as marriage. Marriage is a relationship not only between two individuals, but between two families. In the institution of marriage, there are various factors that need to be taken into account, i.e. pattern relationships, expectations and relationships. The individuals are required to be well-prepared, when they are making an entry into this institution (Marriage: Definition and Forms of Marriage, n.d., [5][6][7][8]). Individuals are required to be well-versed in terms of traits of politeness, helpfulness, co-operation, kindness and generosity. The individuals are required to reinforce these traits, irrespective of their age groups and genders. Furthermore, individuals will be able to make their marriages successful.

The individuals in family of procreation generate information in terms of all the essential traits, which are facilitating in reinforcing cordiality and amiability in terms and relationships. Therefore, when both men and women put into operation these traits, they will be able to contribute efficiently in generating desired outcomes.

The individuals are required to put into operation communication processes in an effective manner. These are regarded as the key in reinforcing cordiality and amiability in terms and relationships. The individuals are required to be well-equipped in terms of communication ethics, i.e. making use of polite language and decent words; treating each other with respect and courtesy; maintaining eye contact, when communicating face to face and possessing an approachable nature and amiable attitude. Within households, there are number of job duties and responsibilities, in terms of which, individuals are required to obtain help and support from others, hence, one needs to acknowledge the importance of traits of helpfulness and co-operation (Allen, 2005, [2]). Within the course of putting into operation effective communication processes, individuals are required to depict the traits of helpfulness and co-operation. The main reason being, individuals will have to acquire support and assistance from others in carrying out all their tasks and activities successfully. Therefore, individuals will contribute efficiently in reinforcing their relationships, when they will hone communication skills and helpfulness and co-operation.

II. UNDERSTANDING THE MEANING AND SIGNIFICANCE OF INSTITUTION OF MARRIAGE

Loneliness is regarded as a chronic and distressful condition for all individuals. The individuals are required to be well-versed in terms of ways that are facilitating in alleviating loneliness. The parents and other family members in family of procreation aimed to get their children enter the institution of marriage, when they attain the right age. The parents work hard to find a good and suitable marriage partner for their children. In this manner, they are rendering an important contribution in creating a companion for their children. In this manner, one is able to alleviate loneliness and form cordial and amiable terms and relationships with others. The conduct of the individuals should be such that they should obtain support from the family members in marital homes to promote enrichment of their lives (Adshade, & Kaiser, 2008, [1][9][10]). Within marital homes, the individuals are required to spend a major part of their lives, hence, they need to develop mutual understanding with family members. Therefore, individuals are able to acquire an efficient understanding of meaning and significance of institution of marriage, when they are able to alleviate loneliness.

III. MEASURES TO BE IMPLEMENTED IN MAKING THE INSTITUTION OF MARRIAGE SUCCESSFUL

In all communities, i.e. urban and rural throughout the country, individuals, belonging to all communities, categories and socio-economic backgrounds consider the institution of marriage important. When the individuals have attained a certain age, they are required to make an entry into the institution of marriage. All individuals aspire to make this institution successful. It is understood on a comprehensive basis that there are occurrences of different types of dilemmas and challenging situations, but one needs to be well-prepared in order to cope with these in a satisfactory manner (Chapter 1. Evolution of Marriage as a Social Institution, n.d., [3]). All individuals are required to augment their understanding in terms of measures, which are facilitating in making this institution successful. The measures are complicated as well as manageable, these are implemented in less amount of time or can be more time-consuming and these are put into operation on one's own or through working in co-ordination with others. One of the important aspects that needs to be taken into account is, positivity needs to be reinforced in all these measures. Therefore, measures to be implemented in making the institution of marriage successful are stated as follows:

A. Implementing Effective Communication Processes

Within marital homes, both men and women are required to put into operation communication processes in an effective manner. This is facilitating in augmenting information regarding various subjects and concepts; exchanging different types of ideas and viewpoints; obtaining answers to all types of questions and clarifying doubts in terms of different factors. The individuals are required to put into operation communication processes in an effective manner. These are regarded as the key in reinforcing cordiality and amiability in terms and relationships. The individuals are required to be well-equipped in terms of communication ethics, i.e. making use of polite language and decent words; treating each other with respect and courtesy; maintaining eye contact, when communicating face to face and possessing an approachable nature and amiable attitude. One of the important aspects is, individuals need to learn to exercise control on the feelings of anger and frustration. Furthermore, these need to be prevented from giving rise to impediments within the course of implementation of different tasks and activities within and outside the homes. Therefore, implementing effective communication processes is regarded as one of the indispensable measures to be implemented in making the institution of marriage successful.

B. Forming an Effective Social Circle

As a consequence of entering the institution of marriage, the individuals will render an important contribution in forming an effective social circle. The main reason being, they are forming links with individuals, which is facilitating in forming an effective social circle. The individuals need to treat each other with respect and courtesy. Furthermore, they are required to make sure, they do not possess any types of negative feelings in terms of anybody. The conduct of the individuals should be such that they should obtain support from the family members in marital homes in order to bring about improvements in their overall quality of lives. Within marital homes, the individuals are required to spend a major part of their lives, especially when they get married when they are in between 20 and 30 years of age, hence, they need to develop mutual understanding with family members. As a consequence, an effective social circle is formed with family members. In this manner, individuals will incur the feelings of pleasure and contentment. Therefore, forming an effective social circle is one of the significant measures to be implemented in making the institution of marriage successful.

IV. CARRYING OUT THE FUNCTION OF CHILD DEVELOPMENT

The function of child development is important among individuals, belonging to both urban and rural communities. This needs to be put into operation in a satisfactory manner. In the implementation of this function in an appropriate manner, the individuals need to obtain support and assistance from family members in natal as well as marital homes. Furthermore, they are required to augment their information in terms of various factors, i.e. communicating with them in an effective manner; depicting the traits of helpfulness and co-operation; providing them good-quality education; getting them engaged in extra-curricular and creative activities; promoting their good health, physically and psychologically; imparting them information in terms of morals and ethics; focusing on augmenting different types of skills and abilities among them; possessing an approachable nature and amiable attitude; promoting cleanliness within homes and creating pleasant and amiable environmental conditions within homes. Hence, putting into practice the function of child development in a satisfactory manner is facilitating in strengthening terms and relationships among all family members in marital homes.
