I. INTRODUCTION

The organizations are of different types, i.e. educational institutions of all levels, training centres, financial institutions, production and manufacturing organizations, services organizations, agencies, non-government organizations and so forth. In all types of organizations, human resources are regarded as the assets. They are required to make use of their educational qualifications, competencies and abilities in an effective manner (Chamundeswari, 2013).

In order to do well in one's job duties, achieve organizational goals and objectives and lead to up-gradation of overall structure of the organizations, it is of utmost significance to promote enhancement of working conditions. Furthermore, there is a need to formulate different types of measures and procedures, which are facilitating in promoting job enrichment. The job of enhancement of working conditions is a complicated job, but it needs to be carried out in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. Furthermore, all the members need to be well-equipped in terms of ways that are necessary in promoting job enrichment. Therefore, it is well-understood that enhancement of working conditions and job enrichment are important in all types of organizations. The job duties are manageable and complicated. These are put into operation on one's own or through working in collaboration with each other. Furthermore, these are more time-consuming and can be implemented in less amount of time. But all the members of the organizations, irrespective of their job positions in the hierarchy need to augment their information in terms of ways of making the working environmental conditions comfortable. Within the organizations, it is necessary to make provision of infrastructure, amenities and facilities. These are referred to power supplies, water supplies, restrooms, clean drinking water, heating and cooling equipment in accordance to the weather conditions, furniture, communication networks, transportation facilities, ramps, elevators, parks, buildings and overall environmental conditions. As a consequence of having these available, one will contribute efficiently in carrying out their job duties and responsibilities in a well-organized and satisfactory manner (Oliver, 2007). The main reason being, one feels comfortable and will be able to augment motivation and concentration levels towards job duties and responsibilities. Therefore, providing infrastructure, amenities and facilities is essential in promoting enhancement of working conditions and leading to job enrichment.

Human resources are the personnel. They are required to make use of their educational qualifications, skills and abilities in an effective manner. Technical resources are various types of technologies, i.e. computers, lap-tops, I pads, scanners, printers, photo-copiers, audio-visual aids and so forth. Material resources are tools, devices, machinery, apparatus and equipment. Information resources are, books, articles, reports, projects, newspapers, magazines, other reading materials and internet. The internet is regarded as one of the prominent sources. The individuals are able to obtain answers to all types of questions that are overwhelming and clarify their doubts in terms of different types of subjects and approaches. Hence, individuals in leadership positions are required to formulate laws and rules, which would be facilitating in meeting the needs and requirements of organizations. These need to be approving in management of resources. Furthermore, one needs to make sure, wastage is prevented [3]. Therefore, individuals are able to acquire an efficient understanding of the meaning and significance of working conditions and job enrichment, when task of management of resources is implemented in a satisfactory manner [4]. Within the organizations, there are some job duties, which are put into operation on an individual basis, whereas, there are others, which are implemented through working in collaboration with others, hence, it is necessary for individuals to develop mutual understanding with each other. For this purpose, one needs to implement communication processes in an effective manner. The individuals, belonging to all job positions in the hierarchy of the organizations are required to communicate with their superiors, subordinates and colleagues in an effective manner. Furthermore, one needs to be well-informed in terms of communication ethics, i.e. making use of polite language and decent words; treating each other with respect and courtesy; making provision of factual information; depicting the traits of helpfulness and co-operation and treating each other with respect and courtesy. As a consequence of acknowledging and implementing communication ethics, all the members will render an important contribution in creating amiable and pleasant environmental conditions within workplace. Furthermore, they will have support available from others in implementing job duties in a satisfactory manner. As a consequence, one will contribute efficiently in incurring the feeling of job satisfaction and retaining their jobs. Therefore, one is able to acquire an understanding of the meaning and significance of working conditions and job enrichment, when mutual understanding is developed among members of the organizations. All the members of the organizations, irrespective of their job positions in the hierarchy need to be well-equipped in terms of their job duties and responsibilities. Throughout their jobs, they need to possess adequate information in terms of these. Furthermore, one needs to be well-informed in terms of different types of ways, which are facilitating in carrying these out in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. The individuals need to be well-informed in terms of traits of morality, ethics, diligence and conscientiousness. These traits are facilitating in doing well in all types of tasks and overcoming setbacks. Hence, throughout the implementation of various types of tasks and activities, one needs to overcome all types of setbacks. This is regarded as vital in being successful in one's work. When recruitment and selection of the individuals take place, they are required to possess adequate information in terms of their job duties and ways of carrying these out in a well-organized and regimented manner. The training and development programs are regarded as the key, which are imparting information in terms of different types of job duties and ways to implement these in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. Therefore, an understanding of the meaning and significance of working conditions and job enrichment is acquired, when information is augmented in terms of job duties and responsibilities.

B. Measures to be Implemented in Promoting Enhancement of Working Conditions and Job Enrichment

In all types of organizations, all the members, irrespective of their job positions in the hierarchy are required to augment their information in terms of overall working environmental conditions. Throughout the implementation of their job duties, they are required to augment their information in terms of ways, which are facilitating in promoting job enrichment. All types of ways are required to be put into operation in a well-organized and regimented manner. In other words, positivity needs to be reinforced in all types of measures (Lacireno-Paquet, Bocala, & Bailey, 2016). These are implemented on one's own or through working in collaboration and integration with other members. The individuals need to ensure they are committed towards achievement of organizational goals and leading to up-gradation of overall structure of the organizations. Furthermore, they need to be wholeheartedly committed towards leading to up-gradation of organizational culture. Therefore, measures to be implemented in promoting enhancement of working conditions and job enrichment are stated as follows:

The different types of resources are, financial, human, technical, material and information. The financial resources are the monetary resources. These are essential in order to make purchases of various items, bring about changes in different factors and acquire the services of domestic helpers and service providers. Human resources are the personnel. They are required to make use of their educational qualifications, skills and abilities in an effective manner. Technical resources are various types of technologies, i.e. computers, lap-tops, I pads, scanners, printers, photo-copiers, audio-visual aids and so forth. Material resources are tools, devices, machinery, apparatus and equipment. Information resources are, books, articles, reports, projects, newspapers, magazines, other reading materials and internet. Furthermore, individuals in leadership positions are required to formulate laws and rules, which would be facilitating in meeting the needs and requirements of organizations. Furthermore, these are facilitating in creating an amiable and pleasant environment within the workplace. The laws and rules need to be approving in management of resources. Furthermore, one needs to make sure, wastage is prevented. Therefore, managing resources in a satisfactory manner is one of the significant measures to be implemented in promoting enhancement of working conditions and job enrichment.

A. Forming Cordial and Amiable Terms and Relationships with others

Within all types of organizations, there are some job duties, which are put into operation on an individual basis, whereas, there are others, which are implemented through working in collaboration with others, hence, it is necessary for all the members to form cordial and amiable terms and relationships with each other. For this purpose, one needs to implement communication processes in an effective manner. The individuals, belonging to all job positions in the hierarchy of the organizations are required to communicate with their superiors, subordinates and colleagues in an effective manner. Furthermore, one needs to be well-informed in terms of communication ethics, i.e. maintaining eye contact when communicating face to face; making use of polite language and decent words; treating each other with respect and courtesy; making provision of factual information; depicting the traits of helpfulness and co-operation and treating each other with respect and courtesy. As a consequence of acknowledging and implementing communication ethics, all the members will render an important contribution in creating amiable and pleasant environmental conditions within workplace. Furthermore, they will have support available from others in putting into practice various types of job duties in a satisfactory manner. As a consequence, one will contribute efficiently in incurring the feeling of job satisfaction and retaining their jobs. Therefore, forming cordial and amiable terms and relationships with others is an eminent measure to be implemented in promoting enhancement of working conditions and job enrichment.

B. Being Well-Informed Regarding Job Duties and Responsibilities

All the members of the organizations, irrespective of their job positions in the hierarchy need to be well-equipped in terms of their job duties and responsibilities. Throughout their jobs, they need to possess adequate information in terms of these. Furthermore, one needs to be well-informed in terms of different types of ways, which are facilitating in carrying these out in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. The individuals need to be well-informed in terms of traits of morality, ethics, diligence and conscientiousness. These traits are facilitating in doing well in all types of tasks and overcoming setbacks. Hence, throughout the implementation of various types of tasks and activities, one needs to overcome all types of setbacks. This is regarded as vital in being successful in one's work. When recruitment and selection of the individuals take place, they are required to possess adequate information in terms of their job duties and ways of carrying these out in a well-ordered and disciplined manner. The training and development programs are regarded as the key, which are imparting information in terms of different types of job duties and ways to implement these in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. Hence, it is of utmost significance to promote enhancement of these programs. Furthermore, communication process is facilitated among superiors and subordinates regarding job duties and responsibilities. Therefore, being well-informed regarding job duties and responsibilities is an expedient measure to be implemented in promoting enhancement of working conditions and job enrichment.

C. Being Well-Equipped in Terms of Methodologies and Procedures

Throughout one's jobs, one needs to be well-informed in terms of methodologies and procedures. These are referred to the ways of carrying out tasks and activities in a well-organized manner. The individuals, throughout their jobs, they need to possess adequate information in terms of these. Furthermore, one needs to be well-informed in terms of different types of ways, which are facilitating in carrying these out in a well-organized and satisfactory manner. The individuals need to be well-informed in terms of traits of morality, ethics, diligence and conscientiousness. These traits are facilitating in doing well in all types of job duties and overcoming problems and challenging situations.
